We share this bread and cup....
....and we proclaim our willingness to build a community of love, and to be the holy people God calls us to be.

(QAC Vision Statement)
From a Marianist Community of student brothers open to visitors for Sunday Eucharist, Queen of Apostles Community emerged as a non-territorial parish on August 28, 1973.

Continuing in the tradition of the Marianist Charism, we come together each week as a family of Catholic, Christian believers, to worship our God in the Eucharist with song & praise and to share in the breaking of the Bread. In so doing, we proclaim our willingness to build a community of love and to be the holy people God calls us to be.

If you are visiting and worshipping with us for the first time, we extend to you our warmest welcome. Our prayer is that your worship experience will be uplifting and Spirit filled. We hope you will visit us often and worship with us!

(If you'd like more information about us or would like to join our Community, please fill out the form on the back cover and drop it in the collection basket!)
NOTE: If the form on the back is missing, email qacohio@sbcglobal.net with your name, phone number, address and we'll contact you about joining us.

Marianist Doxology

May the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be glorified in all places through the Immaculate Virgin Mary.

“THE SPIRIT” & SUNDAY HOMILIES ON LINE: Visit our QAC website at qac-ohio.org. On the main page, you’ll find ‘The Spirit of QAC’ under ‘Our Community.’ ‘Homilies’ are listed under ‘Sunday Bulletin.’

---

STEWARDSHIP & GIVING

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time: “And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, ‘Do not weep.’” (Luke 7:13) This verse is a great reminder that the Stewardship lifestyle is one of service, putting God first and to “love one another.” Unfortunately today, many people have “passion” for activities they enjoy - their job and off-work activities. Many times our “passion” to excel is at the expense of someone else. Maybe we need to focus on a little less passion for our individual concerns and a lot more compassion for others.

Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ (May 29th): 130
1 Kings 17:17-24: The widow’s son has become sick and stopped breathing. She is a Gentile, not a Jew; in her grief and guilt, she blames the prophet Elijah. Elijah responds, not with angry words, but with action that shows he is a man of God who intercedes for others. His prayer begins with a question to the Lord, followed by a request that the breath of life return to the widow’s son. His words reveal his firm understanding...the God of Israel is the author of life.

Galatians 1:11-19: Paul’s tone is highly charged and defensive because he has received word during his mission in Ephesus that others were preaching a ‘different gospel’ than the one he preached. The different gospel required Gentile Christians to follow Jewish laws such as circumcision. For Paul making such legal demands a condition for accepting Christ perverted the true Gospel.

Luke 7:11-17: Jesus happens upon a funeral procession in which a widow mourns her dead son. Unlike Elijah in the first reading, Jesus does not pray to the Lord to put the breath of life back in the widow’s son; rather, Jesus himself is the power and life and breath of God. Both Elijah and Jesus hand the resuscitated sons to their mothers, entrusting the miracles to them. They now have a choice to make - to believe or not - and to live accordingly.

Special Blessing for Graduates

Sending Forth .......................... In the Day of the Lord ........................................ Bulletin, Pg 5
We believe in God who made us all and whose divinity infuses life with the sacred.

We believe in the multiple revelations of God, alive in every human heart, expressed in every culture, found in all the wisdoms of the world.

We believe in Jesus, the Christ, who leads us to the fullness of humanity, to what we are meant to become.

Through Christ, we become new people, called beyond the consequences of our brokenness, lifted to the fullness of life.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God on earth, who keeps the Christ vision present to souls yet in darkness, gives life to hearts now blind, infuses energy into spirits yet weary, isolated, searching and confused.

We believe in God who is life.

Amen to courage, to hope, to spirit of truth, to nature, to happiness, to wholeness, to the partnership of women and men in God’s plan, to the Christ who calls us beyond the boundaries of ourselves, to forgiveness, and to everything that stretches our hearts to the dimensions of God.

In all of this, we can surely believe, as God does. Amen.
In the Day of the Lord

REFRAIN

In the day of the Lord, we will put our hands together. Every tear will be wiped away.

I believe it will come when we put our hands together. I believe we can find the way.

VERSES

1. Lion and the lamb will lie down,
swords will plow the earth
We sit down at the table with our brothers;
proclaim the Lord here 'til he comes.
(to Refrain)

2. Father, God of all things living,
make us as your own.
Touch our hearts, let us see your light shining
as we walk your living land.
(to Refrain)

We start Saturday, May 28th thru Friday, Jun 3rd, to put the house “under roof,” then we take the summer to complete the home for a September dedication. Check our website for work hours. KETCHUP
A woman was trying hard to get the ketchup to come out of the jar. During her struggle the phone rang so she asked her 4-year-old daughter to answer the phone. "It's the minister, Mommy," the child said to her mother. Then she added, "Mommy can't come to the phone to talk to you right now. She's hitting the bottle."

SCHOOL
A little girl had just finished her first week of school. "I'm just wasting my time," she said to her mother. "I can't read, I can't write and they won't let me talk!"

BERGAMO ACTIVITIES

DIVINE COMEDY CONTEMPLATIVE RETREAT II: Saturday, Jun 18th, 9:00 AM-3:00 PM, hosted by the Bergamo Center. This retreat will provide a fuller experience of the depths of the three canticles that comprise the Divine Comedy, namely, the Inferno, Purgatorio, and Paradiso. The undergirding purpose of the Divine Comedy retreat is opening up the literary and spiritual work for each participant to explore their own journeys of transformation. Dante’s hope was to lead the readers to a greater understanding of their place in the universe and prepare them for the next life, which begins after death. This retreat experience is intended to be accessible to people from all backgrounds; no previous knowledge of the Divine Comedy is necessary. Quiet time for personal reflection and application will be paramount, interspersed with some group sessions. The retreat guide will be Anthony Franchina who has an M.A. in Italian language and literature, and the disposition to conduct the mini-pilgrimage under Dante as the retreat master. Location: Bergamo Center 4400 Shakertown Road, Beavercreek 45430; Mary, Mother of Mercy Chapel. $25 (includes lunch). Call Bergamo to register at 937-426-2363.
