

2018 Day of Caring
Queen of Apostles Church
Siben Hall (Si-Lounge)
4435 E. Patterson Road
Dayton, Ohio 45430-1033

On Sunday, February 25, 2018, Queen of Apostles Church Social Justice Ministry will participate in the 28th Annual Day of Caring Pancake and Sausage Brunch. We will join with over 37 other locations in the greater Dayton area to raise awareness of and funds to address homelessness and hunger in our region. The brunch will begin at 10 a.m. at Sieben Hall (Si-Lounge) in the Mt St. John at the Bergamo Campus, 4435 E. Patterson Road, Dayton, Ohio 45430-1033. For location information, go to:

<http://www.bergamocenter.org/PDF/2016-bergamo-map.pdf>

The public and QAC members are welcome to the brunch. Suggested donation is $6.00 for adults and $4.00 for seniors or children under 12 or goodwill donation. The month of February is devoted to make people aware of the needs in their community about hunger and homelessness and to gather to be in solidarity with those affected by these two major problems. For more information on how the money raised is disbursed, go to:

<https://www.beavercreekchamber.org/list/member/day-of-caring-foundation-inc-8368>

Come and join us and enjoy delicious pancakes with all the trimmings and sausage and be pampered by our QAC Youth Group!